

I am requesting that you leave the Indiana Privacy law as it stands. I do not want solicitors to interrupt my privacy at home by making annoying phone calls. I did not give them my phone number and it is a nuisance to receive these calls. Please do not change the Indiana Law! I have finally been relieved of this annoyance. Please do not undo the law in the state of Indiana.